County Firemen Elect New Officers

Officers of Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association elected last evening are, sitting left to right: President Harry Martin, Bear Lake; Vice President Harold Culver, Youngsville; re-elected Secretary Gurney Ball, Youngsville. Standing, same order: assistant Secretary Don Curtis, Glade; assistant Treasurer Leonard Falbriski, Clarendon; and second Vice-President William Marino, Garland. Absent when picture was taken was Merle See, Youngsville, treasurer. — Timesphoto Shattuck.

Gavel of WCAVFA was turned over to Harry Martin of Bear Lake when election of officers for 1959-60 was held at the monthly meeting of County volunteer firemen in Glade fire hall Thursday evening.

Martin succeeds Robert Smith of Starbrick, Gurney Ball, Youngsville, was re-elected to position of Secretary.

The departments reported only six fires in the past month, relatively a low rate.

Chief Scott Stuart of Sugar Grove and Leonard Falbriski, Clarendon chief, made their report on progress in a surprise Civil Defense Mutual Aid run

"sometime" in June. Stuart said all volunteer units in Warren County who wish to participate in the first drill may. Smaller drills will follow later in the year for various sections of the county.

Speed limits will be obeyed by the Lepts. in going to fill site, still unknown to departments. Those who expressed desire to participate included Clarendon, Columbus, Garland, Lander, Pleasant, Russell, Starbrick, Sugar Grove and Youngsville.

Tidoute and North Warren are expected to join in. Plans were made for the Association picnic July 5.

Stuart made a report on the recent Fire Chief's Convention held in Jamestown. James Wright, Director of Radiological Division of Warren Co. CD, spoke briefly on geger counters and fallout.

Borough Police Chief Mike Evan addressed the group, explaining the emergency light setup on the traffic lights in Warren. Motorists were reminded that when the lights blink amber, they are to drive 10 miles an hour and pull over to the curb when they hear a siren.

The July meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 8, instead of the usual Thursday night, in Pleasant Twp. Fire Hall.

Methodists Vote Pay Increases For Ministers

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The Methodist Erie Conference has voted pay boosts for its ministers and married student pastors.

The pay increases, approved Thursday at the Conference's 124th annual session, hike the salary of ministers from $3,600 a year to $3,800 and the student pastor's pay from $3,000 annually to $3,100.

Also approved was a boost of $2 a year in the pension rate for retired ministers. They now will get $48 a year for every year of approved service.

At a symposium on higher education, Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke of Pittsburgh told some 500 delegates that Methodist colleges "should not be a place to learn how to manipulate the universe, but how to motivate the manipulator."

The Conference elected six delegates to the quadrennial General Conference of the Methodist Church to be held in Denver, Colo. April, 1960.

Ministers elected as delegates were the Rev. Dr. Arthur B. R. Colley, Grove City; the Rev. Dr. H. L. Knappenberger Sr., Jamestown, N.Y.; and the Rev. Dr. H.C. Heitzenrater, Clarion.

Lay delegates named were Mrs. H. H. Hopkins, Edinboro; Harold Burns, New Wilmington; and Miss Donna Eshbaugh, Summerville.

Three laymen were elected delegates to the northeastern jurisdictional conference, Washington, D. C., 1960. They are George Shindeldecker, New Bethlehem; Dr. F. E. Murdock, DuBois; and Donald McKay, Sharon.

New Haven R. R. Patrons Defend Whistling Conductor

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—As a rule, commuters who ride the New Haven Railroad into New York don't get worked up over anything but late trains. When they feel a friend is being abused, though, they sound off.

Lately, they've been pelting the railroad with letters because they think it's giving a hard time to one of its veteran employees, ticket collector Ed McCarthy.

McCarthy used to whistle as he took the tickets, tweeting and chirping as he worked from car to car.

McCarthy began his chirping routine about 15 years ago. Now it's as much a part of his makeup as his punch and his flat-topped cap.

"Some of the passengers make believe they're sleeping just to make me chirp," he said.

"And then sometimes they really are asleep. Instead of shaking them and scaring the wits out of them, I chirp—and they usually wake up with a smile."

But not always, it seems. Early this month, a company supervisor said that while many regulars enjoyed the cheerful antics, there were others who didn't. As a result, an order went down to cut out the whistling.

This is what set off the letter-writing campaign. Some have come to McCarthy, some to the railroad offices, and some to the head man himself, President George Alpert.

Although he hasn't yet issued an order removing the ban, Alpert seems to side with the pro-chirp faction.

"In this very drab world," he said, "and in the atmosphere in which we railroad people are living these days, a little whistling does no harm."

Your Forest Ranger

The sound of heavy boots on the logging road overlooking Piney Branch warned them of my coming. The last one to run for cover disappeared under a curtain of dried leaves that still clung to the twigs of a beech top that had been felled last summer.

Curious to know whether it was a rabbit or a young ground hog that had escaped me, I tossed a chunk of wood into the labyrinth of limbs and waited, but the only sound was the song of the birds in the trees overhead.

I stepped back onto the road, avoiding a puddle of muddy water left from a recent shower. As I passed the pile of tops, I heard rustling noises like the wind in the trees. They seemed to come from all parts of the mass of limbs and withered leaves. The tree tops that had once been green, and had bent before the wind, had become alive again—or so it seemed.

Then I saw them—five baby foxes playfully scampering over a tangle of limbs and twigs.

One of them, perhaps braver or more curious than the others, stood facing me with his head cocked to one side. Although the downy, puppy fur that clothed his body indicated that he was new to this world of the hunter and the hunted, his intelligent face reflected the cunning that is every fox's birthright. It was obvious that he had complete faith in his ability to elude me.

I slowly circled the pile of tops to get a better look at his brothers and sisters, but they had vanished completely. I could only assume that the opening to their burrows was under the beech tops, that formed a first line of defense for them, and that they had gone underground. But perhaps they stood camouflaged within the crazy quilt pattern of limbs and shriveled leaves.

I realized then how important escape cover is for the birds and the beasts of the forest.

and how skillfully they take advantage of it.

This incident reminded me of an experience that I had had with another predator—an Arizona bobcat. In company with four other horsemen, I was riding on the Kaibab National Forest. We treed a large bob cat, which clung to a stout lower limb of a big pine. From its high perch it spit and snarled at us. In this open, park-like stand of ponderosa pine there was no visible escape cover except an occasional scrubby mountain mahogany bush that had been overbrowsed by mule deer.

A cowpuncher, who was in the party, removed his lariat from his saddle and tried to show us some fancy roping. He found that lassoing a bob cat from a high limb took more skill than he possessed, and he failed. In the excitement, the cat leaped from the limb without warning. With legs outspread in mid-air he looked like a giant flying squirrel in slow motion. There were five eager men and five impatient impatient horses under the tree ready to run him down the instant he hit solid ground. But like the little foxes of Piney Branch, he disappeared right under our startled noses. Taking advantage of what little escape cover there was, he vanished and was never seen again.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (AP)—William B. Cleveland, formerly a director of Creole Petroleum Corp., has been elected a director of Standard-Vacuum Oil Co.

NEW YORK (AP)—Northwest Orient Airlines reported a 31 per cent gain from a year ago in May passenger business.

The airline flew 112,322,400 revenue passenger miles on domestic routes last month, compared with 85,758,700 in May 1958. It credited a large rise in air coach travel for part of the gain.

New Bids Will Be Sought for Auto Inspection Tags

HARRISBURG (AP)—The property and Supplies Department, rebuffed by the auditor general's office over a contract recommendation, will receive bids again June 18 on the purchase of nine million automobile inspection stickers.

The auditor general's department rejected the proposed award of a $450,000 contract to Meyer-Decalcomania Co., Chicago, on the grounds that Property and Supplies' Bureau of Standards found that the stickers failed to meet specifications.

Richard Eisenhour, chief counsel for Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith, said Thursday that it was "difficult to believe" that property and supplies would approve the contract in view of its own bureau's findings.

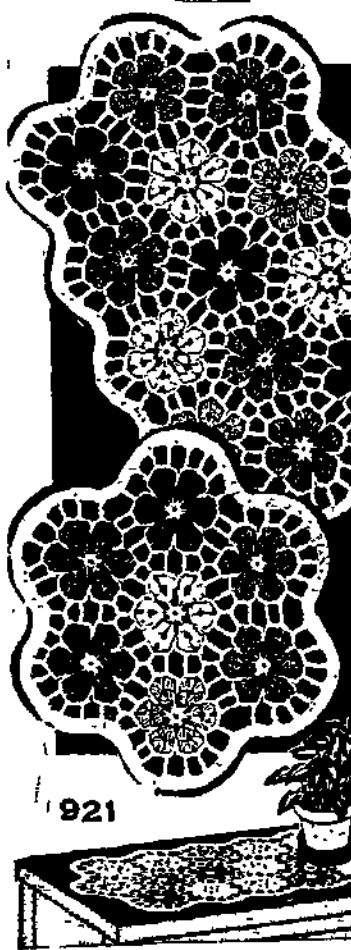

Gordon D. Ziegenfuss, deputy secretary in charge of purchasing said the recommendation was made because the Revenue Department "insisted" on the award to the low bidder.

Ziegenfuss added that the Standards Bureau rejected the stickers because "the samples were more than one year old."

He said the Chicago firm was low bidder on the contract at $5.45 per thousand. Another bid at $5.70 per thousand stickers was received from American Decalcomania Co., New York, at the May 12 bid opening, Ziegenfuss said.

He noted that both firms will submit new bids this month.

Graham Startled By Behavior in Parks of London

By ALVIN V. STEINKOFF

LONDON (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham left for Moscow today somewhat startled by reaction here to his comment on public behavior in London parks.

At a news conference he said that Londoners seemed to be turning their parks "into bedrooms," and that he and his wife, shocked by what they saw on a stroll last Sunday, got out of the parks.

Several London papers commented that it is natural, and not repulsive, for British lovers to hold hands, and maybe indulge in some kisses behind the bushes.

"Perhaps my comments need to be amplified to be understood fully," Graham said at London airport before leaving.

"We saw two couples in the midst of the sex act—in daylight. I am sure these things happen in other parts of the world and maybe in America, but I suppose I haven't had a lot of time to walk around parks in America."

"I have no objection to people kissing or holding hands, or that sort of contact," he said. "But we saw things which I am sure any Britisher would object to."

Graham said he and his wife plan to stay in Moscow about five days as tourists. There is a possibility, he said, that he might preach in some Baptist church.

COMMUNITY FLAG DAY

Area residents are reminded that the annual Flag Day exercises to be held Sunday evening at the Elk Club under the auspices of Warren Lodge No. 223, are open to the public and a large crowd is anticipated. Added interest is injected into the event through the fact that the Cornplanters Drum & Bugle Corps will participate in the program. The Corps is scheduled to present short concerts both before and after the exercises.

"As we raise the Flag on June 14, let us remember that it was the proud successor to that first Flag under which our gallant forefathers fought and won for us our independence," Dr. John W. Larson, exalted ruler of the Lodge, remarked today. "Let us remember the brave men who fought under our Flag of 48 stars at Chateau Thierry, Omaha Beach and Pork Chop Hill to preserve our heritage of freedom. As we welcome the new stars to Old Glory's firmament, let us resolve to remain faithful to the traditions and principles symbolized by those stars and stripes."

The Elk official also urges all citizens to fly the colors before their homes and places of business Sunday!

READ AND REMEMBER

If you want to keep your young child safe from possible death by suffocation, keep any kind of thin plastic film away from him at all times.

Already some 40 accidental deaths have been blamed on such film. Its danger is grimly attested to by suicides who have turned to this new method.

The commonest peril is from the plastic cleaning bags which youngsters put over their heads. Static electricity causes a bag of this sort to cling tightly to a child's nose and mouth, shutting off air supply.

The plastic industry, fully aware of the problem, is cooperating admirably with the National Safety Council to eliminate the danger. It has prepared a pamphlet on the proper use of plastic film, with the advice to destroy it once it has served its purpose.

It is just as important to keep it out of children's hands as it is to keep drugs and medicines where they can't touch them. Not even the wastebasket is necessarily safe. Nor is the outdoor ash can.

Many cleaners, either voluntarily or upon suggestion, are attaching warning notices to the plastic bags they drape over freshly cleaned garments. Some cities are talking of laws compelling such warnings.

There's not a thing wrong with the old paper bags the cleaners used for long decades. It's just that you, their customers, now prefer the transparent plastic cover.

Since you want them, and they come into your house for your convenience, the burden is heavily upon you to see that they do not become instruments of death for playful children. Destroy them!

By JAMES MARLOW
 Associated Press News Analyst
 WASHINGTON (AP)—It's questionable that NATO—its greatest peacetime military alliance in history—can hang together, at least as it is now with its 15 members. Time, changes in the world, and Premier Nikita Khrushchev are all working on it. And Khrushchev's working hard.

It was a moment of terror when the Western allies, including the United States, set up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on April 4, 1949 with the understanding that an attack on one was an attack on all.

Band together in common defense or face the prospect of being picked off one at a time. That was their choice.

The year before, communism had gulped down Czechoslovakia. And in April 1949 Stalin, with his blockade of Berlin, had forced the United States into its historic airlift to save the city.

At that hour in history NATO gave the Allies a greater sense of security than they ever had before or since.

They had a terrifying superiority over Stalin because, if he attacked, the European Allies could hold him off with their ground forces while the United States flattened the Soviets with atomic bombs. That was the theory.

At that instant the United States alone had the atomic bomb. But it was a monopoly which, at the very minute the NATO treaty came into existence, was beginning to disappear.

Early in 1949 the Soviet Union was putting the finishing touches on its own atomic bomb which it was to explode for the first time later in the year. The United States went on to develop the hydrogen bomb. But so did the Soviets by 1953.

For lack of determination, the huge land forces which NATO members were supposed to produce never materialized. And, meanwhile, something else happened which made even the fairly small land forces they produced look even smaller.

The Soviets and the United States both developed missiles for crossing continents. Even President Eisenhower acknowledged last March that Allied armies in Europe did not mean much any more because they were overwhelmingly outnumbered by the

Here and There

Do you know that nearly 4000 boys and girls took part in the 4-H camping program in Pennsylvania last year? Blaine Schlosser, Asst. County Agent, explains that Pennsylvania has three types of camps for 4-H members. The one day camp, three or four day county camp, and the three to four day district camp. These fulfill the needs of most 4-H members. Objectives of the 4-H camping program are the same regardless of the type of camp available. Camping provides the 4-H members opportunity to: Experience a recreational and educational program away from home, in different living situations. Develop interest and skill in active sports, arts and crafts, music and social recreation. Learn to appreciate the outdoors and develop a greater understanding of nature. Grow socially through living with others in a camping situation. Camp programs are usually developed by a committee of leaders, junior leaders, and extension personnel, or a committee of agents appointed for the purpose. The 4-H camps are staffed by local leaders, junior leaders, and extension personnel. The camp nurse, cooks and life-guard are hired for their respective jobs. Specialists from Penn State supply assistance in recreation, forestry, wildlife management, news writing, and visual aids. Sites for 4-H camps are usually rented from other. This requires an adjustment of the 4-H program to the facilities provided by the other group.

A farewell salute to the 48-star Flag will keynote this year's community observance of Flag Day, Sunday, June 14, by Warren Lodge No. 223, E. P. O. Elks. Dr. John Larson, exalted ruler, reminds that the public is invited to join with the Elks in tribute to the Flag, in ceremonies to be staged at the Elk Home, Fourth and Hickory streets, Sunday evening, starting with a concert by the Cornplanters Drum and Bugle Corps at seven o'clock. The addition of a star to Old Glory's Union July 4, representing the new state of Alaska, will be the first change in the flag since 1912, when New Mexico and Arizona became the 47th and 48th states. A fiftieth star, for the State of Hawaii, is soon to be added. The Lodge official urges all citizens to fly the colors before their homes and places of business on Sunday. This year's Flag Day observance will commemorate the 182d anniversary of the adoption of the design for the Flag by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777. Congress resolved then "that the Flag of the United States be 13 stripes alternate red and white, that the union by 13 stars white in a blue field representing a new constellation." A survey reveals that there are few if any, of the new 49-star emblems in Warren. Apparently most patriotic organizations as well as local retailers are waiting for the official Flag of 50 Stars before replacing present stocks.

Looks like the Warren Jaycees, their wives and friends will be in for an interesting time when they play hosts Sunday to the Pennsylvania State Caravan of delegates en route to the annual convention in Buffalo. The delegation is expected to arrive in Warren around 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and will be followed by a picnic lunch prepared and served by the Lewis Catering Service. Bill Houston is chairman of the Picnic Project, assisted by such stalwart and experienced members as E. J. Farynowski, H. L. Powell, A. J. McDonnell and R. C. Munch. It is expected there will be ten or twelve cars in the caravan.

If plans in the making materialize some well known area individual in the makeup of Colonel Edwin Drake, who drilled the first successful oil well, will be an honorary marshal for the annual Independence Day Parade, to be staged in Warren Saturday, July 4th. Already Phil Mong, Hemlock street extension, has offered his "surrey with the fringe on top", drawn by two prancing steeds, to carry the Colonel and his escort over the parade route. Further details are being worked out. It seems appropriate, the committee decided, to recognize the Oil Centennial in some manner. According to history, Drake had been a conductor on the New York and New Haven railroad until illness forced him to quit. While recuperating, he was elected general agent of the Seneca Oil Company at a salary of $1,000 a year and was sent to Titusville to discover a means of obtaining commercially useable quantities of oil from the company owned lands. To increase his prestige, Drake's New Haven backers gave him the honorary title of Colonel, and in May of 1858, "Colonel" Drake and his family checked into the American Hotel in Titusville, where they lived for $6.50 a week. In the next year Drake tried several methods for producing oil. Initially, he tried skimming it from the top of the creek water by means of a series of specially constructed traps. This method, which had been tried by others

How to Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen
 (© 1958: By The Chicago Tribune)

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

THE WELL NOURISHED CHILD

A well fed child is not always well nourished. The obese youngster is a typical example. He may overeat but if essential nutrients are omitted from his meals, he is not well fed.

Food supplies energy and provides the building blocks for repair of tissues. In children, part of the nutrient goes into the growth process. The basic foods furnish proteins, carbohydrates, fats, minerals, and vitamins. The ideal diet for any youngster should contain a good balance of these edibles. Dr. Van Dellen has a leaflet on the basic foods that he will send if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

Good nutrition is a chemical problem but mothers need not be chemists to prepare practical meals. Proteins, for example, are found in foods of animal sources such as meat, fish, poultry, milk, cheese, and eggs, as well as in vegetable products such as dried peas and beans as well as in cereals, bread, nuts, and peanut butter.

Fats are obtained from animal and vegetable sources such as cream, oils, butter, margarine, meat fats, cheese, nuts, and chocolate. Carbohydrates come from cereal products such as spaghetti, corn meals, cereals, and flour, as well as from potatoes, sugars, vegetables, and fruits.

Milk and dairy products have a little of nearly everything, including vitamins and a lot of calcium and phosphorus. Most of the foods mentioned also have vitamins and minerals. When grouped together they provide the basic seven: Meats, eggs, milk, green vegetables, yellow vegetables, cereals, and fruits.

Every mother should have a food plan so that the right foods are served, money is saved, and less energy is spent in preparing meals. A little knowledge of food goes a long way. Less expensive meat cuts are just as nourishing as expensive cuts. Buy staples in quantity and fresh fruits and vegetables in season. Keep the cookbook handy and try something different periodically. Even leftovers may be dressed up to provide variety.

VITAMINS NOT THE CULPRIT

G. M. writes: Whenever I take vitamins I notice blood in the stools. When I stop taking the capsules, bleeding stops. Could the vitamins be responsible?

REPLY
 There is no reason why this should occur but the symptom is abnormal and the bleeding point ought to be determined. It would be a tragedy if you blamed vitamins only to have a more serious cause uncovered at a later date. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on rectal bleeding.

PREVENTIVE NOT KNOWN

J. H. writes: Will lowering a high cholesterol prevent a heart attack?

REPLY
 This is a moot question and represents one of the main stumbling blocks to the theory that lowering blood cholesterol will clean out clogged arteries, or reverse the arteriosclerotic process.

HAIR COLOR AND PORK

F. D. writes: Will eating lots of pork prevent the hair from turning gray because it contains so much of a certain vitamin?

REPLY
 No. Pork is a staple food that most of us eat. If it had any magic powers to prevent depigmentation, gray hair would be unusual.

SKIN INFECTION

W. S. writes: Could pityriasis be due to worry?

REPLY
 This is doubtful. The cause of the disease is not known but it is thought to be a mild viral infection. Symptoms disappear spontaneously in six to 12 weeks.

AP Business News Analyst
 NEW YORK (AP)—The big race in the space age and the jet age is between the United States and Russia. But there are little races today within the big race. And one is between the vacuum tube, the transistor and the magnetic amplifier.

All three industries are growing. New uses are being found for each. And sometimes the devices team up on a job. They are used as aids to automation and for providing control systems, guidance and checkout equipment for missiles, conventional and jet aircraft, atomic submarines, nuclear power installations and industrial controls.

Let's look only at the development of the amplifier, which has mushroomed, largely since 1950, into an industry with annual sales of 125 million dollars, divided among 150 manufacturers. The missile, the jet, and the mechanical brain get the credit. The magnetic amplifier is a solid state or static device designed to control a large amount of power with a small quantity of electric current. It has a saturable core—ring or rings of Germany got the jump on other nations in the 1930s with development of the nickel-iron alloy core. This baffled allied naval forces for a time in World War II, because attacks against the German cruiser Gneisenau had virtually no effect on its gun controls and steering mechanism. Similar punishment seriously disabled allied craft. The United States used the amplifiers extensively in the Korean war.

before Drake, produced only 10 gallons of oil a day. At the same time, he had a crew of men attempting to sink a well. When this, too, failed, Drake decided to "bore" for oil in the manner used by salt drillers at nearby Tarentum. Difficulty in obtaining a drill stalled operations until the spring of 1859 when a blacksmith named William A. "Uncle Billy" Smith agreed to move to Titusville where, for $250 a day, he would drill for oil. A series of cave-ins caused by ground water further delayed the project which began to be known locally as "Drake's folly." After a time, Drake decided to drive a six-inch pipe down to bed rock and then attempt to drill through the pipe. This principle, still in use, made eventual success possible. In August, drilling operations began again in earnest and averaged about three feet a day. However, by this time Drake's backers, having put $2,500 into the venture without success, directed him to pay all bills and shut down the works. But before receiving the notification, Drake had borrowed $500 on his own. It was these funds which enabled the work to continue until Saturday, August 27, when the drill lodged in a fissure 69½ feet down. Inspecting the well the following day, Uncle Billy Smith discovered oil standing in the drill pipe. Drake's ingenuity and determination had paid off. Oil had been struck and a new industry had been born!

The Mature Parent

Girl Has Much to Learn Before Becoming Mother

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The phone call was for Jo. She dropped the magazine she'd been reading, and for the next 10 minutes listened to a high school classmate's exciting account of how Betty Grover had finally decided to go steady with Stan Palmer.

When she returned to the living room she found her younger brother in her chair absorbed in her magazine. She protested, and he aimed a kick at her, yelling: "Leave me alone! You left it here, didn't you? Leave me alone!"

"I wasn't finished..." Jo began—and then calling, "Mother!" rushed to the kitchen for parental support of her right to resume reading.

Her mother gave it. But after the outraged Jeff had lunged out to the front porch to brood over life's injustice, she said, "No, I don't think your brother took the magazine just to pester you."

"He saw you were interested in it and because he has great respect for anything that interests his big sister, he wanted to find out what it was. That could be seen as pestering, Jo. It can also be seen as a kind of compliment to you."

After finishing the magazine, Jo took it upstairs and put it on her brother's bed.

As brother-sister quarrels have their counterparts in later life, we help children when we are able to point out positive elements in their conduct.

One day Jo will have children of her own. They, too, will seem to take delight in pestering her. They'll abscond with magazines she hasn't finished, ignore their own shovels to use her best mixing spoon for their mud-pies and make disorder in her sewing basket at every opportunity.

Their interest in her interests will not be pure piskiness. In it will be the same admixture of admiration for her that there was in Jeff's appropriation of her magazine.

But if she's allowed to grow up believing that her brother's pestering represents pure piskiness, it may be hard for her to see positive meaning in her children's actions.

And failing to appreciate the passion for her best mixing spoon, she'll think she's as persecuted a mother as she was a sister.

Soviet Union.

The United States, with its fleets of bombers and their hydrogen bombs based at friendly stations around the Soviet perimeter, can still discourage a Soviet attack. This is still a consolation to the NATO members.

But it is a mixed consolation because of one thing: The world is in a transition period, passing from the day of the bomber to the era of the missile.

The United States is arranging to surround the Soviet Union—again at friendly stations on Allied soil—with bases for missiles which have their noses pointed at Moscow. In time, when there are enough missiles, the bombers will be obsolete.

But the Soviets are building in the Soviet Union their own bases for missiles pointed westward. In time, with enough hydrogen-headed missiles, Khrushchev could destroy Western Europe.

But it's a pipe-dream if the West thinks the United States can build missile posts right next door to the Iron Curtain and that the Soviets will keep all its own missile bases strictly inside the Soviet Union.

Khrushchev showed what a pipe-dream it is by warning Turkey and Greece, both NATO members, not to permit American missile bases in their territory unless they want him to build missile bases right next door in the Soviet satellites, Albania and Bulgaria.

And Thursday he cautioned two other NATO members—Norway and Denmark—against permitting missile bases within their frontiers. He indirectly proposed that they get out of NATO altogether.

As bait for these four NATO members, he proposed to Greece and Turkey that there be a nuclear-free, missile-free zone from Central Europe to the Mediterranean; to Norway and Denmark he proposed a similar nuclear-free zone in Scandinavia.

It is perhaps significant that Khrushchev, Stalin's successor, is trying to terrorize Greece and Turkey. Stalin tried the same, in another way, back in the late 1940's.

Stalin tried to shake Berlin free of the Western grip in 1949. Now, 10 years later, when he feels strong enough, Khrushchev is trying to shake Berlin free of the West.

As Soviet missile power grows and as Khrushchev steps up his campaign to keep American missile bases out of NATO countries, those countries will feel more and more pressure to cut loose from NATO since, if war came, they'd be the nearest targets.

The world may be puzzled by Khrushchev's tactics over Berlin right now. But you can be sure this is just the beginning of a concentrated campaign, to be carried on for years, to shake NATO to pieces.

And even one of the NATO stalwarts, France, made the whole structure shudder this week when President Charles de Gaulle insisted upon having control over any nuclear stockpiles this country wanted to set up in France.

CONEWANGO MYSTERY DAM

Even those who favor the Conewango Valley Diversion Plan over the proposed Kinzua Dam cannot answer the question—will there be a "Little Kinzua Dam" as part of the Conewango project? Will there be? About the only answer to this is to quote Col. Smith of the Army Engineers, then follow up with the statements Dr. Morgan and his associates have themselves made relative to this "mystery" impoundment.

Col. Smith says, "Morgan's latest plan includes a 4000 foot dam on the Allegheny River at Cold Spring which will carry about 60-foot depth at its maximum."

Dr. Morgan in his statement to the Sub-committee on Public Works, says, "... there will be a relatively small dam on the Allegheny."

Barton D. Jones, Morgan's associate, in his statement to the Sub-committee on Appropriations has listed the following in his estimate of the cost of the Conewango Plan, "Diversion dam at Cold Spring; $525,000." A footnote to this item reads, "This would be an earth diversion dam constructed to about elevation 1385 and would contain about 700,000 cubic yards of rolled-filled earth, and it would be about 65 feet high above the river's bottom and 3000 feet long."

These statements seem to confirm that there will be a "Little Kinzua Dam" as part of the Conewango Project.

Now—a look at the facts concerning such a dam on the Allegheny River.

In the first place, Dr. Morgan's "relatively small dam on the Allegheny" will turn out to be quite a sizeable structure.

It will be built on the most useable and most populated portion of the Seneca's Allegheny Reservation, thus displacing a large number of Indian families from their homes and lands. (As would the Kinzua Dam.)

Constructed to an elevation of 1385 its maximum water level would be twenty feet above the flood stage at Salamanca, N. Y., and could possibly cause great damage to this city.

It will be a "nuisance" dam because of its limited capacity. It will fill up, and be drained off, during every high-water period of the Allegheny River and cannot possibly have any recreational value.

It will cut the Seneca's Allegheny Reservation in half—with one portion above, and one portion below, its valley-spanning breast.

To sum up the facts concerning this "Little Kinzua Dam"—It will violate the Treaty of 1794 (if the Supreme Court holds the treaty to be a valid one) in the same respect as would the "big" dam—it will be a "mud-flat" dam if there ever was one—There is the possibility that it will be a real flood threat to the city of Salamanca—And the Senecas who live below such an impoundment will still have their lands and their homes, but little else. The tourist and recreational trade that is needed to supplement the Seneca Nation's sagging economy will be gone to the Conewango Valley.

New Routings Are Being Sought by Allegheny Lines

First single plane service between Toronto and Washington, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and other cities in Pennsylvania is proposed by Allegheny Airlines in an application to the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The specific routes requested by Allegheny include a Washington-Toronto route via Baltimore, Harrisburg, Williamsport, and Buffalo, N. Y., and Pittsburgh-Toronto routings via Erie and Bradford, Pa., and Buffalo, N. Y.

Certification of these routes would enable Allegheny to link virtually all of its 50-city system in the Middle Atlantic area with Toronto and other points in Canada, the company said.

Allegheny's application also requests non-stop certification between Washington/Baltimore and Buffalo and Pittsburgh and Buffalo.

Allegheny President, Leslie O. Barnes, noted that Allegheny's proposal contemplates a stop at Buffalo on all flights serving Toronto. This, he said, would enable Allegheny to provide new or substantially increased air services between the important St. Lawrence Seaway port of Buffalo and Allegheny's system.

Commenting on Allegheny's proposal, Barnes said it "recognizes the acute need for direct air service between the highly industrialized Middle Atlantic area served by Allegheny and our dynamic neighbor to the North, many of whose important industrial and commercial activities are centered in Toronto."

The POWER of FAITH

FAITH THAT AMERICANS LIVE BY — 10

Police surrounded the gangsters' hangout near Chicago. Inside was a captive, Bishop Robert Nelson Spencer, alone and unarmed, entered the stronghold, untied the prisoner and walked out with him.

"Prayer tells you what to say," said the bishop, "In a sense, I let someone else do the talking."

Crippled in one arm as a youth and uneducated until he was 18, this farm boy rose to become the Episcopal bishop of West Missouri. He is now retired. The governor recently proclaimed a day recognizing his "devoted services."

As a young minister Spencer worked on a road gang, when volunteers were called for to build new streets. He established a sanatorium for meningitis victims. He had coits and a soup kitchen set up in his church's basement for the unemployed during a freezing spell. For all this he sought no publicity, saying, "This is Christ's house . . . He'd probably have said: 'See that you tell it unto no man.'"

Chapman Park Visitors To Obey Hours

Dept. of Forests and Waters reminded the public today that Chapman Dam State Park closes at 9 p. m. and all visitors except the overnight campers who have obtained permission to stay, must be out of the area by 9:00 p. m. or a reasonable time thereafter.
 An increasing number of late night frequenters and some recent acts of maliciousness may require expense of night patrols if it continues, the Dept. said. Such patrols would necessarily be paid from funds now needed to keep the park on minimum maintenance.
 Spot checks are now being made by Park management and State Police patrols on cars and persons at the Park during late hours. Infractions of Park Rules and Regulations are punishable by Justice of the Peace with fines up to $100 or 30 days in jail.
 "It is sincerely hoped that no enforcement action will be required," Charles Merroth of Dept. of Forests and Waters said.

Local Men in Fleet To Sail Great Lakes

When the U. S. Navy sends 28 of its warships on Operation Inland Seas, a visit to 27 cities in the seven states bordering the Great Lakes, this summer, two local men will be aboard destroyers participating.
 They are Michael Joseph, son of Mrs. Margaret M. Martin, of Warren, a fireman aboard the USS Ault; and Earl W. Ekdahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Ekdahl, season on the USS Forrest Sherman.
 The fleet of 28 vessels will include destroyers, a heavy cruiser, and an amphibious force of seven ships, entering the Great Lakes June 28 and returning to the Atlantic Fleet in late July.
 This is the first time a major fleet has been on the Great Lakes since the War of 1812, and entry of the ocean-going force is made possible by the opening of the recently completed St. Lawrence Seaway.
 Among cities to be visited will be Buffalo, Oswego, Rochester and Dunkirk, in New York state; Cleveland, Toledo, Lorain and Ashtabula, in Ohio; Erie in Pennsylvania.

Writer of Letter to Santa Retires as School Teacher

By RAY KORN
 NEW YORK (AP)—The unseasonal theme of the balmy June evening was "Is there a Santa Claus?" But it was appropriate, because it honored the gentle Virginia whose query brought a famed answer 63 years ago.
 As an 8-year-old, Virginia O'Hanlon wrote a letter to the old New York Sun asking that pointed and poignant question about Santa. The editorial reply on Sept. 21, 1897, has had countless reprintings and translations into 20 languages.
 Thursday night Virginia — Mrs. Laura Virginia O'Hanlon Douglas, now 70 — was given a retirement dinner in Brooklyn after 43 years as a public school teacher and principal.
 Virginia, now silver-haired and a widow, never has lost her faith in all kinds of folk, including Kris Kringle. It has paid off, too, in universal love and respect, and endeared her to thousands of kids who came under her supervision.
 Only the other day a middle-aged cab driver turned to his passenger, who was Virginia, and said: "I'm Harold from Public School 31. I used to think you were a greater person than the President."
 In addition to the songs and speeches at the dinner, there was a reading of that famous letter "Dear Editor: Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Please tell me the truth."
 Mrs. Douglas was "feeling a little shy" about rereading the reply written by the late Francis Pharcellus Church, which said in part:
 "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist. How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus. It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias."
 For the last three years Mrs. Douglas, retired at the mandatory age, was junior principal at P.S. 401, which supervises classes held in 10 hospitals and other institutions for chronically ill children.
 Mrs. Douglas plans to live with her only daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Robert Temple, and their seven children at North Chatham, N.Y.
 Summing up her feelings about her students, Mrs. Douglas said: "It must be the eternal light with which childhood fills the world."

Sportsmen Are Invited To Fish Demonstration

A fish population study and public demonstration of the electro-fishing method now employed by Pennsylvania Fish Commission will be conducted on Little Brokenstraw Creek Saturday.
 Kenneth G. Corey, Clarendon, District Fish Warden, said today the work will be under direction of William Daugherty, Regional Fishery manager for the Commission's Northwest Region.
 Times-Mirror published a layout on the electro-fishing program on Pymatuning Lake in the May 29 issue.

Sportsmen are invited to visit the area and watch first hand how the new method is being used. The demonstration will be at Three Point Inn on Rte. 6.
 Interested parties will meet with the demonstration group at the Inn at 9 a. m. From there, they will go to the study area on Little Brokenstraw.
 Main purpose of the studies is to determine variety of species present in area waters and their number, size and condition. This information is used as a guide in management efforts.

Corey said that if adverse weather or water conditions prevail, the study will be postponed to a later date.

Love Makes Time Fly; Don't Let It Happen Vice Versa

If you want to stay companionable with your husband through the years:
 Make a real effort to go along with him on business trips when he asks you, instead of telling yourself it is just too much trouble to make arrangements for having the children looked after and so on.
 Get to know his friends and their wives instead of limiting your social life as a couple to your friends and their husbands.
 Be enthusiastic about his hobbies whether you share them or not. A wife doesn't have to hunt, for instance, if she proudly serves guests the game her husband shoots, lets him put his gun rack on the big bass that didn't get away on the wall of the family room, and doesn't appear bored when he shows the colored slides of his last hunting trip to friends.
 Encourage him to talk about himself and his ideas, the way you did when you were paying the way for an engagement ring. Husbands who "never talk to their wives" probably got discouraged somewhere along the way because their wives stopped being good listeners.
 Get away together as often as you can for brief holidays. Just a couple of days away from home now and then will do a lot to keep the two of you companionable and to remind you of how much fun you can have when you get away from the demands of everyday living.
 Learn together. Whether you are studying art, or trying to become expert bridge players, or trying to learn all you can about gardening doesn't matter. The fact that you are learning together will give you many happy hours of shared experiences.
 Go places and do things, instead of sitting passively before the TV set night after night. You'll have a lot more fun together and a lot more to talk about.

last of the well-loved Sgt. Bilko series will be given an original broadcast.

Summer season repeats are gradually taking over a lion's share of television time. But baseball fans at least will be able to catch some big league ball on Saturday and Sunday when NBC broadcasts a pair of Los Angeles Dodgers-Pittsburgh Pirates games.

Saturday night Tony Bennett, Teresa Brewer and the Four Lads will step into the spot vacated by Perry Como in the premiere of a hot weather series called Perry Presents.

James Thurber's scheduled appearance on CBS' The Last Word gives the regular Sunday network show more than its usual interest. And daytime viewers may also see the first of a two-part series on ABC showing military war games filmed in North Carolina.

On Sunday night, however, the Steve Allen Show will be missing from its regular NBC spot and in its place the first of a series of repeats of the Suspicion series, last seen on the network two seasons back. Ed Sullivan, on CBS, however, carries valiantly on this week with Wayne and Shuster in some comedy, Robert Merrill with some singing — and a fireworks display honoring the 350th anniversary of the discovery of the discovery of the Hudson River.

The Chevy Chase, on NBC starring Janet Blair and John Raitt, will have an assist from pianist Joey Young.

And Friday Phil Silvers does his last Bilko episode on CBS.

BUCS CONCLUDE COMEDY OF ERRORS BY 12-9 WIN

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh and San Francisco staged a comedy of errors at Forbes Field in the windup of their four-game series.

Seven Pirates and four Giants were the main performers as they committed a total of 12 miscues—three short of the National League record.
But the Pirates stole the show Thursday with a 12-9 victory.
Pittsburgh committed seven errors; San Francisco five.
Fly balls and grounders slipped through fingers in all parts of the field as the Pirates smacked 13 hits and the Giants nine.
Out of it all came reliever Roy Face as the winning pitcher, although he served up a home run ball to pinchhitter Willie Mays with two on in the eighth inning.
Face, who hasn't lost a game since May 30, 1958, now has a 9-0 record this season, the best in the National League.
Bob Friend started the game and Vernon Law finished it.
Stu Miller, the fifth of six Giant pitchers, was charged with his second defeat against three victories.
The Pirates tallied twice in the second on Dick Stuart's 10th homer of the year, and three singles.
In the sixth the Bucs scored three runs on two hits and an error by shortstop Andre Rodgers.
Rodgers was the goat again in the seventh when he threw wild on a double play ball. The error permitted the Bucs to take a 7-5 lead.
Two errors got Friend in trouble in the eighth and set the stage for Mays' blast. But the Bucs came back with five runs on four hits and two errors. The scoring door was opened when Willie Kirkland dropped Bill Virdon's leadoff fly.
The Pirates open a four-game series tonight against the Los Angeles Dodgers. Harvey Haddix (4-4) will go against Don Drysdale (5-5).

Drag Racing At Dunkirk Sunday

Drag Racing on Dunkirk Drag Strip Sunday afternoon will be the first event of its type in the immediate western New York area.
Classifications and inspection of cars will begin at 8 a. m. Sunday, with time trials at 12:30 and eliminations for various classes at 2 p. m.
The Dunkirk strip is 4,000 feet long.
Drag racing is an acceleration contest between two evenly matched automobiles. Their designs vary from the conventional street-driven stock cars to the out-and-out competition dragsters.
Purpose of such a contest is to find out which car can reach fastest possible speed in shortest possible time.
"E. T.", frequently heard, is the time it takes the car to cover the regulation 1,320 feet from a standing start to the finish line. Races are won on basis of elapsed time, not maximum miles per hour.

Bass Fishing Hits Open Season Monday

One second after the clock strikes midnight Sunday, largemouth and smallmouth bass will return to an open season status, making all species of fish in Pennsylvania's inland and boundary waters fair game.
Open fishing will continue through Labor Day, Sept. 7, when the curtain drops on the 1959 season for brook, brown and rainbow trout.
William Vaughn, Jr., executive Fish Commission director, said that there is many miles of excellent fishing that is "virtually going begging" in the State's large rivers, notably upper Allegheny, Susquehanna and the Delaware.

MacArthur Feels Age In Baseball Game

TOKYO (AP) — U. S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II showed up today to open Japan's first baseball Hall of Fame with a slight limp—from playing baseball. The American envoy explained.
"If I appear to be limping a bit today, it's because of baseball. Last Saturday the embassy had its annual baseball game with the Gaimusho (foreign office), and I played shortstop. I discovered even before the game was over that I am not as young as I used to be. It was a grand game, however, even though the Gaimusho beat us 15 to 8."

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (AP) — Ben Hogan, a little fellow who carries a lot of weight, took a share of the lead into the second round of the 59th U.S. Open Golf championship today.
But two younger pros who carry little weight—physically or competitively—found themselves in a very enviable position although the 46-year-old Texas precisionist shot a 69 Thursday in his bid for an unprecedented fifth open title.
Dick Knight, 29-year-old, 5-foot-10, 160-pound former driving range operator who plays out of San Diego, Calif., was tied for first with Hogan and two others of golf's best-known stars, Gene Littler and Dow Finsterwald.
Hillman Robbins, a 27-year-old, 5-10, 137-pound freshman pro who was National Amateur champion two years ago, was only a stroke behind.
But so many good players were grouped within a few strokes of these pace-setters that it still could be anybody's tournament.

Fourth One-Hitter Is Hung Up by Pierce of White Sox

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Billy Pierce missed that elusive no-hitter he's come so close to nailing again Thursday night, coming off with the fourth one-hitter of his career—tops among active pitchers in the majors.

This one hoisted the Chicago White Sox into a 1½-game lead in the American League with a 3-1 victory over the Washington Senators.

Pierce, whose last one-hitter was a 3-0 decision over the Senators June 27 last year, gave up a third-inning double by Ron Samford Thursday night, then pushed the run across with three consecutive walks.

The win added a half-game to Chicago's lead as Cleveland replaced Baltimore in second place by beating the Orioles 2-1. Rocky Colavito, who tied a major league record with four home runs

Wednesday night, doubled home the deciding run in the eighth as the Indians won two in a row for the first time in three weeks.

Detroit regained fourth place by belting Boston 8-1 as Kansas City skidded New York to fifth 9-5.

Al Kaline drove in three runs with three hits for the Tigers. He singled home the clincher in a three-run seventh inning against rookie Ted Wills (2-1) and hit his 12th homer in the ninth. Reliever Ray Narleski made his second start and went all the way for a 3-6 record with a five-hitter, giving up Ted Williams' 48th career homer, second this year, in the sixth.

Right-hander Ned Garver (5-4) needed relief in the ninth, but beat the Yankees for the first time since 1955. The A's chased Bob Turley (5-7) in a five-run fifth inning triggered by Kent Haden's two-run homer.

Podres Finally Pitches His First Two-Hitter in Majors

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
It took Johnny Podres five years and a little more than a month to pitch his first two-hitter in the majors. Now the stocky southpaw has put away two in less than three weeks.

He got the second Thursday night, giving up only a leadoff single by Richie Ashburn and a fourth-inning single by Wally Post while pitching Los Angeles to an 11-0 victory over the Phillies at Philadelphia. That gave the Dodgers full command of third place in the National League.

Podres' 15th shutout in the majors left the Dodgers within two games of second place San Francisco, beaten 12-9 at Pittsburgh. That plunked the Giants two games back of Milwaukee's first place Braves, who won 8-0 at St. Louis behind Bob Buhl's five-hitter.

Don Newcombe also collected a shutout, giving up nine hits while winning his fifth in a row in an 8-0 Cincinnati victory at Chicago. The loss dropped the Cubs into a fourth place tie with Pittsburgh.

Buhl (6-3), coming back after last year's arm trouble won his fourth in a row with his second shutout. The Braves, who had lost two straight, collected five runs on homers by Casey Wise and Del Crandall. Wilmer Mizell (7-3) was the loser.

The Pirates and Giants combined for a dozen errors and 11 unearned runs. Two errors set up a five-run eighth for the Bucs against losing reliever Stu Miller (3-2). That saved it for unbeaten Roy Face, who won his 14th in a row in relief of Bob Friend after giving up Willie Mays' three-run pinch homer in the eighth.

Dick Stuart hit his 10th homer for the Bucs and Willie Kirtland hit his ninth and 10th for the Giants, giving him four in four days.

CVCC Linksmen Tee Off With Titusville Sat.

Renewal of interclub golf matches between Conewango Valley Country Club and Titusville will begin Saturday afternoon on the CVCC links.

Thirty-five visiting golfers will pair off with local linksmen. A dinner-dance will follow the match.

In the regular tournament, a most-of-a-kind event, Lloyd Cleveland and Bob Walsh tied with five 5's in first flight. Tim Creal had his usual low gross with a two under par 34.

In second flight, Dr. Wally Sedwick and Howard Colt fired four 5's with Milt Dahler's gross 42 best round.

Dr. Jim Giunta had six 5's in third flight. Jack Blair and Al Lorange grossed 42. Howard Boyd with five 4's won four light with best gross Jack Lutz's 42.

Al Vermilyea turned in best nine hole score, a 48, and John Haggerty won fifth flight with five 6's.

Prizes were awarded golfers closest to the pin on the 168-yard third and 135-yard seventh. Johnny Carter put his tee shot 26 inches from No. 3. Bob Blair was closest to the hole on No. 7, 6 feet 5 inches.

Maplehurst Pro Hits 80 in U. S. Open

Jamestown's entry in U. S. Open competition at Mamaronock, New York, found the going rough in opening round on Winged Foot course Thursday.

Toby Lyons, after shooting a par 70 in a practice round during the week, soared to an 80 in first round flight in a tie with nine other golfers far down in the field.

Lyons put together identical rounds of 40-40 for his 80, which is 11 strokes off the pace set by Ben Hogan, Dow Finsterwald, Gene Littler and Dick Knight, who recorded 69s.

Scoops Up Ball, Nearly Another Record

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — Ralph Lument and baseball rarities seem to go hand in hand.

The Charlotte left-hander, who pitched a no-hitter his last time out, made a brilliant grab of a line drive Thursday night and started a triple play.

Lument was the loser as the Hornets bowed 4-1 to Savannah in the second game of a South Atlantic League doubleheader, but he made two defensive gems. One started the triple play and a stab of another line drive was turned into a double play.

S-M Nine Pull From Tied Game To Beat 400 Block 5-4

Bob Harrison held 400 Block Merchants to one-hit ball for four innings as Soda Mineral mustered the power to score a run in final inning to pull out of a 4-4 deadlock and triumph over the stubborn 400 nine 5-4.

Played on the City Softball home diamond on West Side, Soda Mineral jumped to a 2-1 lead going into the scoreless second. They added one top of third only to have the Merchants haul in three and take a one-run lead. S-M knotted the score in fourth and waited for the final inning to close scoring.

W. Check rapped a booming double in the eighth with J. White on to score the big run. Confer tripled, Haight and Foley each had three bingos.

Cameron was 1-for-1 and J. Foley 3-for-5 for S-M. Haight was 3-for-4 and Sturdevant 2-for-3 for 400 Block.

Tuesday will see Soda Mineral with a 3-1 record take on Solar Electric, 1-2, at West End.

Lane and Ortiz Meet Tonight in Bout for Title

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Kenny Lane and Carlos Ortiz get their chance for a world boxing championship tonight although it isn't the title they have been shooting at for years.

Lane and Ortiz will battle 12 rounds or less at Madison Square Garden for the revived junior welterweight crown. This division, inactive since 1946, is halfway between the light and welter classes with a weight limit of 140 pounds.

Both the New York State Athletic Commission and the National Boxing Assn. agreed to recognize the winner of this bout as the titleholder, Dullio Loi of Italy, the European welter king, already has agreed to meet the new champ in the Garden Aug. 21. It is close to a pick 'em even money fight with a slight edge to Lane.

The fight will be seen and heard on network (NBC) radio and television, starting at 9 p.m. (EST). Even if no title were at stake, this would be an interesting rematch of a Dec. 31 battle between the two men at Miami Beach, Fla.

Lane, 27, won a majority decision in that 10-round match. Two officials had him ahead in the "10-point must" system. The other two scored it even.

Under New York rules, two judges and a referee will score the bout by rounds, using a supplementary point system in case of even rounds.

This indicated Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville hold hope—however slight—that Gromyko will get orders from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to back up.

At stake are the possibility of putting the Berlin crisis on ice and the prospects for holding a summit conference later this year.

Lloyd told today's session that Gromyko had wrecked two weeks of work Tuesday in his proposal of a one-year moratorium in the Berlin crisis. It would be backed by a Soviet threat to make a separate East German peace treaty if the year failed to produce agreement on an all-German peace settlement and West Berlin's future.

The Soviet Premier blasted Western policies on Berlin as "unrealistic and bankrupt" in a speech at Riga, Latvia, Thursday. But he did not slam the door on a possible change in the Soviet stand.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville were reported slightly encouraged as a result of the two-hour talk Herter held with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The Western ministers had denounced the Soviet proposal for a one-year breathing spell in the Berlin crisis—with the deadline backed by a threat to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany—as an ultimatum.

But an American spokesman said that Gromyko had told Herter "that it was not an ultimatum, indicating the Soviets would negotiate on it."

Defense attorneys protested in vain that reading of the statements to the jury would deprive their clients of their constitutional rights.

Stoutamire's attorney, John Rudd, protested that Stoutamire was sleepy and drunk at the time and that Hopkins and Deputy Sheriff W. W. Slapay extracted the statement from him under a threat he might get the electric chair.

Rape is a capital offense in Florida but no white man ever has been electrocuted for raping a Negro.

Slapay, who was on the stand at the time, testified that Stoutamire was sober and alert and that Hopkins warned him fully of his constitutional rights to refuse to give the statement.

The statement first was offered at the end of testimony Thursday in which the victim testified she wept and begged vainly while the four raped her repeatedly.

Northern Area Joint Board Considers Recommendations

Holding its last meeting of the current fiscal year Wednesday evening, Northern Area Joint School Board considered budget and attendance reports for the year ending, acted upon recommendations of the building committee, and approved personnel changes.

Reporting for the building committee, Norge Luvison stated he and Dr. Everett Landin, supervising principal, conferred with the Department of Industry and Labor in Harrisburg and June 18 has been set as the date when mandated structural changes in each of the three elementary buildings of the jointure will be arranged.

Acting upon Floyd Marsh's personnel report, the board accepted with regret resignations of Douglas Ott and Mrs. Gertrude Stohberg from the high school staff and Robert Staup at Sugar Grove. Mr. Ott will enter other work, Mrs. Stohberg is moving to Corry, and Mr. Staup is taking up seminary work in Washington, D. C.

Approval was given contracts for the following new teachers: Beverly Troxell of Glasgow, Pa., graduate of Indiana State Teachers' College, home economics; Mrs. Gail Cowan of Youngsville and Edinboro State Teachers' College, elementary art; Michael Schultz of Sugar Grove and Lock Haven, S. C., French and English; Mrs. Harriet Beck, Farmington township and Edinboro, grade five at Sugar Grove; Myrtle Johnson, Chancellers Valley and Edinboro, for an additional grade one room in Sugar Grove.

It was shown there is one vacancy in the system, involving grades four-five and six at Sugar Grove, where Mr. Staup has been teaching.

Board President Alden Abbott presented matters from Dr. Landin's report, including the first full year of the dental clinic operated by Mrs. Orrie Maass and Dr. James Rogan, with a notation that state reimbursement and fees have covered the entire operating cost.

The annual report of Librarian Mabel Reese showed total expenditure of $2,638.48 for books, periodicals, book repairs, and instructional film rentals; receipt of $351.53 through Memorial gifts and cash sources outside the board.

A detailed statistical report of elementary schools showed average membership for the year was 766.3 students; average attendance, 94.3%.

Secretary Hazel Kays was authorized to make fund transfers enabling all departments to end the year without deficit; also to pay current bills of $6,037.66 for elementary schools, $7,793.03 for high school. Mr. Luvison's office was authorized to solicit bids for a new school truck, removal of the Sugar Grove gym, and a portion of the Russell storage shed; and to arrange for blacktop paving repairs at Eisenhower.

Lynn Burgett presented Charles Peterson's transportation report and the board contracted with John Sweeney of Sugar Grove to use a passenger car in covering the Ashville road and Jamestown road area; also with LaVerne and Gail Decker for a 72-passenger bus to serve Swede, Hollow-Chancellers Valley areas.

July 8 was set as next meeting date for the full board.

Stassen Promises To Ease Unemployment

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold Stassen, running for mayor of Philadelphia on the Republican ticket, made a campaign promise Thursday aimed at easing this city's unemployment problem.

Some cities with high unemployment, he said, are footing the transportation bill for their jobless citizens who go to other cities in search of work.

If elected, he said, he will send those coming to Philadelphia back where they came from.

When City Council President James H. J. Tate, a Democrat, heard about the campaign promise of the former Governor of Minnesota, he said:

"Stassen is a migratory worker himself."

Drunken Drivers Sentenced Today In June Session

Two drunken drivers were sentenced, two who failed to pay fines were warned and a prisoner was paroled all in a brief Quarter Sessions court today.

Robert Reinhardt, Tiona, was fined $120, ordered to pay costs and must serve 2 days in jail on a drunken driving charge. Cecil Weller, RD 1 Clarendon, was imposed the same fine and has already served his three days.

Court order partial or full payment on unpaid fines before the July session when Leon B. Come, Jr. and Anders L. Werlin, both of Warren, appeared before Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr.

Come was given a fine and costs on a drunken driving charge, Werlin fine and costs on a charge of failure to stop at scene of accident.

James Beers was put on probation for remainder of his 1-year sentence after serving 107 days in County Jail on a morals count.

Three non-support cases were heard.

Boston Police

(From Page One)

The FBI, which had agents on the scene Thursday, indicated that at present it had no active interest. Normally the FBI would not be involved officially unless there was a suspicion of a subversive act.

Massachusetts General Hospital spokesmen reported improvement in the condition of the three most seriously injured. Although the names of all three were on the danger list none was reported in a dying condition.

Investigators said the bomb went off with the explosive force of a 500-pound Air Force bomb of World War II.

The blast blew apart the big 53-year-old pagoda-type waiting room on the elevated station of the Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authority.

It caught several persons within the waiting room and on the outdoor station platform. Some of them were blown 30 feet to busy Canal and Causeway streets below.

Six were injured as they sat in a train approaching the station. The blast stopped the train 20 feet away. Only three seconds later the train would have been in direct line of the explosion.

Others were injured on the street below—by the terrific concussion and by flying debris.

Windows were broken in buildings as far as 150 feet away and as high as the 14th story.

Scene of the blast is directly across the street from the North Station railroad terminal which also houses the Boston Garden sports arena.

Eight hours after the 2 p. m. (EDT) explosion, the switchboard operator at North Station received an anonymous telephone call that a bomb had been placed in that 14-story structure.

The operator said the caller also said that the afternoon blast "was meant for McGinnis." Patrick B. McGinnis is president of the Boston & Maine railroad.

Police said there have been at least four warnings of secreted bombs at North Station within recent weeks.

They recalled the mad bomber who terrorized New York City for 16 years. He had planted 33 bombs before police caught him in 1937.

Stowaway Makes His Second Trip to Paris

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The first transatlantic plane stowaway makes his second flight to Paris Saturday.

Arthur Schreiber, now 32, is flying to the French capital as a guest of Air France.

On June 13, 1929, when he was 22, he stowed aboard the "Yellow Bird" as three Frenchmen, Jean Assolant, Rene Lefevre and Armand Loti, took off in the single-engine plane from Old Orchard, Maine, for Paris. They arrived in Spain 33 hours later.

Lefevre, now an executive of Air France, arranged Schreiber's trip to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the flight.

Man Presumed Killed in Wreck Shows Up Alive

RESERVE, N.M. (AP)—A week ago, the charred wreckage of an automobile was found in the woods of southwestern New Mexico.

Wednesday, the family of Manuel Armijo Jr. buried the skull and a few bones found in the wreckage.

Thursday, Armijo wandered into a logging camp near the scene of the wreck, bearded, dirty and dazed.

"We're stunned," said Mrs. Armijo at their home in Albuquerque. She spoke for herself and the couple's four children.

Armijo, 43, was examined at a hospital and then taken to jail in Socorro. Sheriff Barney Hickson wants to talk to him some more about the skull and bones.

Next on TV Hour-Hour Of Commercials Only

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Next on TV: A half-hour program of nothing but commercials.

Station KTTV of Los Angeles believes its viewers are going to enjoy it.

Come July 11, the 6:30-7 p. m. slot on Saturday nights will be filled with the best spot commercials the station can assemble from the nation's advertising agencies.

The idea comes from Richard A. Moore, president of KTTV, who started thinking one evening when his daughter interrupted a conversation to watch a commercial.

KTTV says it won't charge the advertisers a fee for showing its all-commercial program.

Around the Area With The County Agent!

By Bernie Wingert, Warren County Agricultural Agent

Since I began writing this weekly column, I've been attempting to write about Warren county's people, places and things. I haven't gone in for solving the national farm problems with sound economics, facts, and high sounding phrases, and what's more, if I knew how to solve all of today's agricultural problems I'd have gone to Washington long ago.

However, I came across the following article the other day from the National Grange, which asks the question WHO GETS GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES? and I'd like to use part of the article today.

Here's the article —

WHO GETS GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES?

Ask the average man-on-the-street what he thinks of Government subsidies and chances are ten-to-one that he will tell you he is against them. Ask him who gets most Government subsidies and his answer will be — "farmers." Ask if he or his business receives a subsidy and the answer is likely to be an emphatic — "NO."

This average man-on-the-street" who says he is opposed to all subsidies comes into contact with them everyday.

When he awakens in the morning, he turns on a light and immediately starts sharing the results of a subsidy provided through a fast tax write-off plan which saves power companies billions of dollars — and which reduces his light bill accordingly.

When he goes to a breakfast of bacon and eggs, he shares the benefits of the Government's 19 million dollar Federal Meat Inspection Program — a program conducted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture for the sole purpose of assuring the public a safe and wholesome supply of meat.

If he has children in school, their education is subsidized by taxes paid by the childless neighbor across the street. And, if he is among the 35 million children who eat a hot lunch provided through the highly popular Government school lunch program, he receives direct benefits from another $100 million Government subsidy. If his children are in one of the 62,000 schools participating in the special school milk program, they come in for a share of still another $75 million subsidy.

When "Mr. Average-Man-on-the-Street" drives the family car into the filling station and tells the attendant to "fill-up" he again shares in a major Government subsidy — one brought about through a special "depletion allowance" tax regulation which cuts the petroleum industry's annual operation expense by about 1 billion dollars a year.

If he makes a trip by plane, he rides at a fare made possible by a direct subsidy to airlines — and by tax supported airports and air traffic control facilities.

"MOON BALL" — Earthmen wearing this latest in space-pilot attire could play ball on the moon. The Mark IV suit, developed by B. F. Goodrich, and the Navy, has remarkable mobility even when pressurized. It's shown at the U.S. Naval Air Material Center in Philadelphia. Just one thing: on the moon, a normal home run would travel half a mile.

If he lives in a house purchased with a G.I. loan, he pays a lower rate of interest because Uncle Sam has agreed to bail the banker out, in case there is a default in payments.

When he sits down to read a magazine, he starts sharing a subsidy provided through the U.S. Post Office Department — a subsidy which has cut the annual cost of mailing a single publication by as much as $8,604,000.

So, throughout the day, the man who says he is opposed to all forms of subsidy, has been sharing special services provided at the taxpayer's expense.

The following figures show the Bureau of Budget's breakdown of "current expense of aids and special services" for a recent year.

CCC losses on farm price support, $184 million

International wheat agreement, $77 million.

Grants in aid (extension service, experiment stations, etc.), $60 million.

Other USDA operations, $94 million.

TOTAL FOR AGRICULTURE, $463 million.

Post Office Dept. in favor of business, $670 million.

Navigation aids, $137 million

Air navigation aids, $93 million.

Ship operation subsidies, $50 million.

Other special aids to business, $138 million.

TOTAL TO BUSINESS, $1041 million.

To labor (grants to states for operating employment service and unemployment compensation programs), $200 million.

These conditions do not justify a continuation of ineffective farm price support programs now in operation, they do show clearly that farmers have not been — and are not now — the exclusive beneficiaries of special subsidies and services supplied at the expense of U.S. taxpayers.

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Things I learned about Fred Astaire by reading his autobiography, "Steps in Time":

He doesn't like top hat, white tie and tails.

He claims "I am always arriving at dinner parties not wearing a dinner jacket when I should, or vice versa."

He wasn't inspired when he watched his sister Adele in dancing school — "Dancing was merely something my sister did. I let it go at that and the hell with it."

Fred's father, a beer maker from Austria, was the stage-struck one in the family. He sent his wife and two children to New York to seek stage careers for the youngsters.

Fred used to date Ginger Rogers in 1930, before either of them entered movies — "we danced now and then for fun, with no plans whatsoever of working together."

His exclamation to his wife when he saw himself on the first time in "Dancing Lady": "My gosh, I look like a knife!"

The legend that Mrs. Astaire prohibited him from kissing Ginger in their costarring films is false. "It was my idea to refrain from mushy love scenes, partly because I hated doing them and also because it was somewhat novel not to have sticky clinches in a movie."

He dreamed up his famous golf number in "Carefree" when he playfully kicked a ball off the tee while limbering up at the Bel Air course one day.

His "retirement" after "Blue Skies" had been suggested by his mother when he was 25. Said she: "You started working at such an early age and I think you should retire when you're about 35. You are entitled to it." He waited until he was 46.

Boyle's Column

By ED CREAGH

(Substituting for Hal Boyle)
WASHINGTON (AP) — The piano sets the pace and the pitch the brass brays, then the clarinet comes on-cool as a robin on a spring-blossomed limb, wild as the writhings of an Arab girl dancer.

And then, man you've got jazz going.

Where? Right here in your nation's capital.

Only reason I mention this is that tourists and most natives — the natives mostly flee to their suburbs at 5:01 p.m. — have the false impression that Washington folds up its sidewalks, turns off Congress and wraps the White House in cotton wool at sunset.

But Washington is one of the swingin'est jazz towns in the U.S.A.

There's Charlie Byrd at the Showboat, boggling and weaving over a guitar that twangs out rhythms which would drive a Gypsy mad.

There's Wild Bill Whelan at the Bayou, probably wearing a mad plaid jacket, blowing his lungs out through the bell of a trumpet.

And maybe best of all, if you will allow a personal preference, there is Booker Coleman at the Charles Lounge, with a Dixieland-type combo the like of which you are not going to hear this side of New Orleans and maybe not there.

Booker is a comfortably large Negro who sits at a grand piano, which he tunes himself, and, with his head swinging side to side like a jazzed-up metronome, and a pungent six-cent cigar at a 45-degree angle, wrings melody out of that piano.

There's always rock 'n' roll and hillbilly.

An outfit known as the Treniers is at the Casino Royal. I haven't heard them, and am not about to. They sound like, even at a distance, more than an old man can stand.

And if you don't like music at all, or at least nonclassical music, we've got live burlesque, and night clubs on the outskirts that would make a traveling salesman blush.

Just wanted you to know that Congress doesn't put on the only show in town.

TODAY'S WOMEN

When a wife becomes a widow life may not seem worth living — but it is, says Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., who shared high adventure for 34 years with her famous husband.

Alive, alert and vital to her fingertips is this fragile-looking grandmother, who has written the story of her life with T.R. Jr., "Day Before Yesterday," a lively, tender and often stirring picture in a half century of American history.

Though her husband was the most important influence in her life, and though she shared a closer companionship with him than do most wives, Mrs. Roosevelt at 70 looks forward to new adventures.

"There are still a few places in the world I haven't seen, and I want to see them," she says. "And if I get a chance to take a trip on a space ship, I'll do it like a shot!"

couldn't be neglected that I have not had time to withdraw from any part of life. There are my children and my grandchildren. And there has been this book. I started it 10 years ago, put it away for five years, and then started again. For the last three years I've worked on it almost constantly."

Mrs. Roosevelt wrote the book herself — not merely by dictating to a secretary or a tape recorder, but by doing the actual typing.

Since her husband's death Mrs. Roosevelt has made four trips to Europe as a member of the American Battle Monuments Commission. Her home in Oyster Bay, Long Island, now is shared with the widow of her son Quentin and his three daughters: Alexandra, 14, Anna, 12 and Susan, 11. In addition she has three other grandchildren: William and Eleanor McMullan, children of her daughter, Grace; and Theodore Roosevelt IV, 16, son of Ted III, universally known among family and friends as "T-Four." Her son, Cornelius, is still a bachelor.

By the way, Mrs. Roosevelt's first name is Eleanor, but she says: "I seldom use it — makes things so confusing, you know."
